“ I worked with Ines for many years @ Champion. She was conscientious, an extremely hard worker and she was my friend. I also, through company activities, had the pleasure of knowing Dave. They complimented each other beautifully. RIP Ines

“ such great memories of her and Dave when they owned the standard station in Vulcan. We grew up with them as our neighbors and they always watched over us Vulcan kids, we have many great memories of such a great couple and now that she joins David and my Dad - they will have more happy times ahead. forever in our hearts and memories rest easy beautiful woman. God bless her entire family.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family of Ines during this sorrowful time. She and David were great neighbors for many years. David's family (Herman, Lucille, and Rita) were our neighbors forever as long as I can remember. Lovely people. Ines was a great person and will definitely be missed. Barbara (Cieslak) Hartwell
