“ I want to mention that I unintentionally omitted a special friend of Jack's in the obituary. Theda Goodrich was a special companion of Jack's in later years and they enjoyed many years together prior to Theda's passing in 2013. Theda was one of the nicest people I have ever met. I sincerely regret this omission.

“ Jack was one of a kind. He brought me much joy and laughter over the years. Loved that guy!

He lived by his own set of rules those rules were set in stone, and I wish all young people could have taken a class in economics from this man, our country would not be in debt.

Although he knew where every penny he spend came from and went and why, he was also one of the most generous men I have ever met.

We had invited him on a group pheasant hunt a few years back and we were all so happy he was able to join us. We all had a wonderful time, and when we all divided up the bill, we were told it was taken care of, and yes, Jack paid for everyone., From that day on, as a hunting joke, I named him "Jack Ass" for paying for everyone. That was his camp name, and he was very proud of it.

Believe me when I tell you, Jack was a part of our "Greatest Generation" The World War II generation. I watch as these great people pass, and it really saddens me, they will all be missed. My life is a little more empty without my, "Jack Ass" not here as a true friend.
