

Violet Josephine Pearson

March 8, 1921 - October 24, 2016

NORWAY- Violet J. Pearson age 95 of Norway, died Monday, October 24, 2016 at Evergreen Meadows in Norway.

She was born March 8, 1921 in Seymour, WI, the daughter of the late John and Esther (Gulseth) Wagner.

On June 21, 1947, Violet married Roy Pearson at the Mission Covenant Church in Foster City, MI, who preceded her in death on February 16, 1996.

After graduating from Felch High School, she received her teaching certificate and later earned her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from Northern Michigan University. Violet dedicated her life to teaching children, starting her teaching career in Munising, then Foster City and taught for many years in the Norway-Vulcan school system, retiring in 1979.

Violet loved children and loved teaching, whether it was academics or Sunday School. She touched many lives in the local areas through her generosity, kindness and laughter.

She was very active in her church life. She loved singing alto in the choir and trios, playing piano, teaching Sunday School and kids' programs, working in the kitchen, and serving in Covenant Women's Ministries with her longtime friends Irene Welch and Lenore Soderlund. She was a gracious servant of the Lord.

Violet enjoyed knitting, cooking and baking, laughter, but most of all time spent with family and friends. She was a hard worker all her life and did it selflessly.

Violet and Roy thoroughly enjoyed watching their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren in all the many activities they were each involved in over the years. From baseball games to dance and piano recitals to band concerts to a "mean" game of UNO, all were truly loved by them both.

Violet is survived by her sons Gerald (Sherry) Pearson of Wausau, WI and Glenn (Jo Anne) Pearson of Gladstone, MI and her daughter Mary Lynn (David) Verley of Norway, MI.

She is also survived by her grandchildren Joshua (Jessica) Pearson, Scott Pearson, Carolee Pearson-Clark, Amy (Josh) Morgan, Jason Verley, Pamela (David) Westphal, and Mindy (Andy) Mokszycke; and great-grandchildren Alicia, Connor and Andrew Morgan, Toby Verley, Zachary and Spencer Pearson, Madelyn Westphal, and Justin Rock; sisters Alice Badgett and Barb (Karl) Bosk, sisters-in-law Ruth Wagner and Ruth Rahm, many nieces, nephews and cousins; many friends, including her wonderful caregivers at Evergreen Meadows.

“ My daughter had the privilege to work with Violet at her new job. She was very touched by her and shared it with me. I told her my Grandmother's name was Violet. This really touched me that this amazing woman touched my daughter's heart, just like my own grandmother did. Blessing's and prayers to your family. Anne Deming. My daughter is Madison Bethke

“ Mary Lynn, I am so sorry I will not be able to make your Mom's funeral, i will be out of town. I have many great memories of your Mother not only as my teacher (many many years ago!) but of reconnecting with her at Evergreen when my Mom was there. Your Mom was a wonderful person who impacted a lot of lives through her teaching. She is now at rest and reunited with your Dad. Sending hugs your way. Amy

“ Our deepest sympathy to Violet's family. She lived a long happy life. I have many fond memories of her as a teacher, being in the children's choir at the Covenant church in Foster City, she was a special person. Let the happy memories replace the sadness in your hearts. May God grant you comfort and peace. Ruthie and Roger Solberg

“ To The Family of Mrs. Pearson.

When I was 7 years old Mrs.Pearson lived across the street from me. I could not go to school because of a illness I had. She would come to our house to teach me my studies for that year. Something I never forgot. Thank You. May you rest in peace.
