

Alice Hollingsworth

January 5, 1918 - May 11, 2008

ALICE HOLLINGSWORTH NORWAY – Alice Marie “Gram” Hollingsworth, age 90 of Norway, died May 11, 2008 at Manor Care. She was born on January 5, 1918 Iron River, Michigan, and was the daughter of the late Casimier and Katherine (Twardzik) Mish. Her family moved to Vulcan, Michigan when she was five. She graduated from the Norway – Vulcan Schools and married Irving Jansen. She then married Bernard Guiliani and lastly, Earl “Moose” Hollingsworth in 1975. Alice resided in the Norway-Vulcan area the majority of her life. Following her marriage to Earl, they resided for a few years in the Detroit area. The most important thing to Alice was her family and spending time with them. Each family member has wonderful memories of “helping” in the kitchen for one of her delicious Sunday dinners. She also loved to cook for everyone else and did so at several local establishments. Her family owned Alice’s Restaurant from 1967 to 1973. Alice’s love for people and love for socializing made her a great bartender. She worked at the J&J, Town Tap and Stop Light to name a few. As a young mother with two daughters she managed the Norway Coop. Alice was a member of the VFW Auxiliary in Norway for over 50 years and was president for 20 years. Alice also loved to bowl and was a member of the WIBC for over 40 years. She attended craft classes at the Norway Senior Center and crocheted for everyone. Alice is survived by daughters, Joyce (Dave) Mattson of Cape Coral, FL, Alice “Sis” (Eugene) VanEyck of Menominee, Mi, and sons: Robert (Linda) Guiliani of Clare, MI, and Roy (Luanne) Guiliani of Norway; 12 grandchildren James
