“ Our sympathy to the Zanon family. As a kid, I have good memories of our family get-togethers. We always enjoyed your company at our house, and the visits to your farm. Amelia and Rutta were very hard working and loving people, which is why we enjoyed them so much. 'Father Don' married Judy and I, 47 years ago, tying a knot that will never be untied. And Dickey, as I remember, was always very busy, operating two farms, Stanley's and their own. God bless you all!

“ To Amelia's family - My Aunt Rose just told me about Amelia's passing, and I offer my sincere condolences. What a lovely person she was! She was my Mom's roommate at Manor Care last November/December, and we got to know her. She told us stories about my Dad, Frank Socha, and his Mother, Sophie Socha, and it was so fun to hear so much history. She was so sad for my Mom's ill health, and she and I along with my sister, cried together when my Mom passed away on December 18. Your Mom was an absolute delight and a bright light in life. May God Bless her and keep her enfolded in his arms. She kept us together with her hugs and kisses, and I will never forget her! Sending back to you much love, hugs, and kisses, Carol Socha and Susan LaFave
