“ So sorry to hear Tony died!! He lived in my apartments 7/07-7/08 and we really loved him. My hubby, Blake, passed away 8/15/14 of melanoma. I guess he and Tony are talking machines and tech stuff on the other side now. Michelle, if I can do anything for you, please email me. You have my prayers.

“ Michelle and family-may God comfort you in this time of loss. I worked with Tony at Joy Franklin, PA. He knew the equipment very well especially the Battery Haulers. Tony's attention to detail was superior and he will be missed. I saw his struggle with cancer and all hoped he could beat it. He was a fighter but this disease took him too soon. Remember the good times in his life to provide comfort.

“ Michelle, my friend it is so hard to know where to begin helping you, know that I am that person you can call anytime-day or night! Know that I love you and wish your heart was not broken. I loved Tony too mainly because he loved you but that's not the only reason either! His humor and wit makes me think he made you laugh quite frequently. That dry sense of humor he had, I can picture him now waiting to see how long it would take the group to actually get the funny part of what he was saying. Then nodding his head when he see that you have understood the humor. I am so glad he loved you like he did and you following him to Kentucky and the Pennsylvania, away from the rest of your family but you would have it no other way. I know you were the rock that he leaned on through his fight with cancer and I know that he is grateful to have had all of your love. I am looking forward to seeing you, obviously I so wish it were under different circumstances. Let me leave this final comment, I hope with all my heart that as you think back on you life with Tony, you remember the times he made you laugh. He loved you so much and although it is understandable to be sad, Tony would want you laughing and living your life happily, as soon as it is possible. Be gentle with yourself, I love you my friend, Bev

“ I worked occasionally with Tony during his time here in Franklin, PA. Tony was a wealth of knowledge and will be sorely missed not only because of that, but also his sense of humor. He always had a way of making me laugh no matter how difficult the situation. Darin M Sutton
