“ *Uncle Eddie and family,
Please accept our deepest sympathy. It has always been a pleasure to visit with you and Auntie Arlene on trips to Noway. It is so unfortunate that even in this age of modern medicine, some things cannot be fixed. I know, too, she'll be greatly missed. Travel is taxing for Dad and Mom; I would have driven them but, at this point, their spirit is stronger than their bodies. Just an afternoon away from the house leaves them pretty tired. Please know that you are in our cloest thoughts. With love,
Pam and family*

“ Dear Ed, First let me express my sorrow for the loss of your dear wife. I did not realize that she had been so very ill. I tried several times to reach you but have not so far been successful. I want to let you know that due to everything taking place in such a limited time I am unable to come to pay my respects. I am simply unable to get free on Friday morning. I will have a Mass celebrated for Arlene and we will notify you when it is to be scheduled. I will remember Arlene and you in my Masses. God bless you my friend.

“ I will miss my Aunt Arlene very, very much. I spent many a summer as a kid playing in and around her house with her sons Paul and Larry. Her daughter came a little later, but I think of them all when I think of Auntie Arline. She was devoted to them. Of course, my thoughts are with Uncle Eddie now too. They were a beautiful couple.
I am deeply saddened now, but know that my happy memories will soon move to the forefront.
I was lucky to have been a part of her family. She was a wonderful addition to my life.
