“ Aunt Bernice was a an amazing person. If you ever met her on a city street for the first time you would never know she spent her life in the UP until she served you one of her pasties' That would lock it up. She was very well read and would read/ study the background before she would visit any venue or attraction excluding the Devil's Icebox On her Apache Junction trips with her sister Elaine, they never seemed to stop moving. She quickly fit into the local motif to include a window shade for her car window. Her knowledge of Phoenix Valley landmarks, customs and courtesies were excellent. She could order from a menu in a Mexican Eatery and not embarrass me. She would eat Pan de Huevo with her coffee. If you asked about Terry and Diane you were always in for at least an hour dissertation. She had an iron memory and remembered the smallest of details on events that occurred 50 years ago. I gave her alot of working material. I am fairly certain that the good Lord welcomed her into paradise with open arms and confirmed a few Tucker stories. She lives in my heart.

“ Bernice has always held a special place in my heart as she gave me my first full time job. Newly separated with two sons to raise it truly was an answer to my prayers. She ran a right ship at the mine but always room for laughs. I still maintain many friendships from my years working there. Bernice 's ability with mathematics was a gift. My condolences to her family at this most difficult time.

My sisters and I grew up next door to the Alexander family on Norway Street and have so many fond memories of our wonderful neighborhood and the people who lived there. Most of the neighbors are now gone but the memories remain. My deepest sympathy to Terry & Diane and the rest of Bernice's loved ones on behalf of The Lardenoit Girls. May God bless you all!
