“ Tom- As we have spoken, we are sorry to hear of the passing of your mother. Never an easy part of life, but part of life just the same. Continue to be a good son by being a good husband and father. That is about the future, Your friend and brother- John-

“ First, there were beads. A lot of beads.
Then the sparkles, that shown everywhere.
We had made boxes full of jewelry together, and made just as many memories.
That day, we were craft making crazy.
Then you went into your tiny corner kitchen and made me some cartoon-shaped macaroni and cheese.
i honestly don't think mac and cheese has ever tasted so good.
Things changed over the next few years, but nothing that prevented us from seeing each other.
You were in a wheelchair most of the time, but you never let that stop your witty self.
I'd come back home with a heart full of memories, and plenty of vintage jewelry, and we cannot forget those great pictures of my dad back in the day.
Today though, fatal news came
And i have been in a constant daze.
But it has made me realize so much about you.
So much that i admire.
All those summers in the heat...
it was your spirit that made them bearable
Every obstacle you have been faced with
You've beat out, against all odds
It's your strength that has helped through these days and something that i know will help me throughout my life
Its your eyes i see through they show me the right way
its your fire
that makes me proud to tell people, "Yeah, thats my grandma."
And its your love
That will always be with me
Thank you
Grandma
I love you
Rest in peace.

“ May you rest in Peace Aunt Betty. I have always loved you even though you and my Uncle were still not married. Because of this marriage my childhood memories include you – letting me lick the spoon or run my finger in the bowl of your baking creation of the day. The sweet bakery scent always in the house. They house you so graciously let us live in while we were looking for a place to live. I don't know how long we lived there but it wasn't long enough for me. Christmas presents were awesome too. Then you still invited us over when you moved to Carney. The last thing you gave me was a candy tin with a butterfly on it, I still have that and I will always treasure it. You have touched my heart and I am sure you have done so to others. You hold a special place in my heart. I love you and thank you. Rachel Ramos Gandulla Dobek
