“ I read your Mother's obituary in the Norway Current today. My Mom told me that she passed away on the phone the other night. I have so many fond memories of her and of all of you when I babysat when you were all small children -- Kim, you were just a baby! Your Mom was always first class and loved to dress up and go out back then. I remember her saying that bright, pink lipstick looked so good with a great tan! And, she wore it all so well! I think back to our ages --your Mom must have been about 27 when I was 13 or so. She was one of my first female role models, and sure was a kind, fun, loving person. And, all of you were such delightful children; I enjoyed babysitting for you--never a problem, and your Mom and Dad were always good to me when I worked at Lundin's Market. May you relish all of the wonderful memories you have of your dear Mom. You have my thoughts and sympathy. Love, Carol Socha
