Everyone has always called her Cheryl but me. I've always called her Sherry since the day we became friends in high school. We roomed together in college and I stood up for her when she got married and she stood up for me when I got married. Even though we didn't spend much time together for many years, I knew hiw important friendships are especially when she got sick. We shared so many memories and how we laughed now when we reminisced. I am so happy to had time to spend with her these last few years. I will treasure my time and my memories of her. My sympathy to you all. She was a special, and courageous woman who will be missed. May she Rest In Peace
