“ Dianne was my best friend. We shared so many things in our years together, going back into the times our children were babies. I have postponed this tribute, because of tears. I talked to her about four days before death on the phone, telling her that if I could bear her pain, I would, but the Lord doesn't do that. He can do it. I told her she was in my prayers. I also said " I love you, and she answered "I love you too". I had a cough, that I didn't want her exposed to. Our lives were not stopped, even though I had moved to Texas. We would chat on the phone and I always ended it with "I love you". She would answer "I love you too". There are few people that have a friend that true and good.

There are memories of joy, laughter, getting the first #1 stockcar on the track, as my husband then was Pat Temple, snow Mobiling and sharing our lives with one another. I also met Janko, that she said was the "love of her life"

I was blessed in her friendship. I have a card she sent me several years ago saying" We talk a lot, laugh a lot and share a lot.... I'm so glad I have a friend like you in my life. Always, Dianne

May you find peace Dianne. You will always be loved in my heart.
