“ We are so sorry to hear of Ed's passing. My father roomed with him at Maryhill. He was such a joy to talk to. He will be missed greatly by all who new him. He definitely made an impression on our family. We enjoyed visiting with him daily at Maryhill when Oliver (my dad) was there. He spoke highly of his family and missed his wife dearly. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family and friends.

“ Dan, Tim and Families, I was so sad at the passing of your wonderful dad, yet have to smile as I know how happy he was to be reunited with his beloved Edith. He spoke of her so often and so lovingly when I would visit my dad. I have such fond memories of our families during my growing up years in the neighborhood of Norway and Brown streets!! We did enjoy special times there. I know your Dad will be missed by so many. My father was glad to have had the opportunity to be his roommate for the time he was at Maryhill. My condolences to all of you.
