Betty was so kind and sweet, she was always ready to help others! I will never forget her sweet smile ! We had a lot of good laughs together , when we lived next door as neighbors those were good memories , when the kids were little! I will always cherish the memories of those years, rest in peace, dear Betty!

“ Elizabeth was like a second mother to me. She brightened the room with her smile and showed the love of Jesus to everyone. I especially loved her cooking and delicious pies. She always made me feel appreciated and a part of the family. Her love for her family was a true blessing to witness. I will miss her dearly and know she is in the arms of Jesus. My prayers are with the family. I love you all very much.
