“ I remember the good times we had at your house in Quinnesec. Your mom was a very sweet person and a barrel of laughs. I loved being able to spend time at your house playing. I remember on Sat. mornings watching to see your curtains open so I knew we could come over to watch TV. One memory as an adult was when I was having my daughter Stacy in the Norway hosp., it was chaotic with a lot of people, your mom was trying to get through and my sister Eva told me your mom got on her hands and knees and crawled under everybodys legs to get through. Thank you Mrs Stanchina for being such a good person and neighbor. RIP. God Bless all of you.
