“ My heartfelt sorrow to Irenes' family. She was one of those ladies that was easy to get attached to. I enjoyed hearing her stories of her little dog and of course her family. Especially when she got excited in the moment of her stories. She is a lady I wish I would of met many years ago. She had beautiful white hair when she came into my life and such a beautiful complexion and of course her beautiful smile. I so wish I could of taken her home. I will remember her always. My hugs to Irenes' family !!

With love Betty Hansen the housekeeper at Pinecrest.
