

Jason Paul Tibbs

December 14, 1979 - September 22, 2017

IRON MOUNTAIN- Jason Paul Tibbs age 37 of Iron Mountain, passed away on September 22, 2017 at Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

He was born on December 14, 1979 in Norway, the son of George Tibbs, Jr. of Manitowoc, Wisconsin and Debra (Ed) Biddick of Norway.

Jason graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1999.

He enjoyed life and music, and was a hard worker. He loved the outdoors, and enjoyed learning to kayak. He also enjoyed watching movies, playing games, and spent a lot of time gaming with his boys. Jason loved his children and especially enjoyed spending time with them.

Jason is survived by his children Jason 'Tyler' Rain Tibbs, Kameron Tibbs and Ana (Tibbs) Newman; mother and step father Debra and Edward Biddick; father George Tibbs, Jr.; sisters Jessica Tibbs of Iron Mountain and Jamie Tibbs of Quinnesec; paternal grandfather George Tibbs, Sr. of Missouri; aunts Carmen Tibbs of Germany and Tracy Powers of Charlotte, NC; one nephew and four nieces.

He was preceded in death by his son Austin Rain Tibbs; maternal grandparents Frank and Marion Bednarz; and paternal grandmother Nellie O'Neil.

Jason loved people, and with the giving heart that he had, he was also loved. He gave of himself through the gift of life as an organ donor, touching four lives.

He is no longer with us, but will be greatly missed. But we have the value of knowing 'his heart beats on'.

A Memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 21 at 1 p.m. at the Ortman Funeral Home in Norway.

“ I met Jason when he was just 18 years old. We remained close throughout the years. One thing I will always remember about him is his determination. He had a kind heart and an enormous love for his family. He will be sadly missed.
