“ I am sorry for your loss. One of the last times I was with Jayme was when she visited me in London. Like the girl I knew in HS, she was a woman with a smile and ready for adventure. I'll remember how comfortable she was starting conversations with strangers during our day in Paris. May she rest in peace.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. She was truly my main squeeze when we were kids. We had a lot of adventures during childhood and college. I will never forget them. I am very grateful we shared memories. I hope everyone finds peace and a way to remember her.

“ I am so sorry that Jayme is gone. We had some great times together ❤️. As kids we played in each other's homes on a regular basis. She was creative, had a dark sense of humor with I admired and loved, she wrote soap opera scripts that were truly good, and was a brilliant mind. She knew at a young age she would do something with medicine. I hope she found peace. So often we struggle to obtain perfection but perfection is not attainable or sustainable. Sending my love to her family. I hope you can find peace in her memory.

“ Frank and Suzy you have my deepest sympathy for Jayme. Losing a child is the worse thing for a parent to go through. I know the feeling. I'm here for you if needed. Love to you and family.

“ We send our condolences to your loss. Jayme was family during childhood and adolescence. We will always remember times shared. Jayme's years at MTU, sharing those apartments with the girls, were definitely a bonding experience in life. We send our love and will hopefully see you on Thursday.

“ I will always remember Jayme in the neighborhood. Seeing her ride her bike around the block and saying hi as she rode past. I was lucky to reconnect with her via social media and it was amazing to catch up. My heart hurts as this world lost a bright soul. She will be missed. Thinking of you all.
