Jeff was a friendly guy who loved to visit with anyone interested in conversing. He enjoyed spending time being informed by reading several daily newspapers on his computer in the comfort of his air-conditioned garage. He loved reading about politics and world news.

He enjoyed travel, which included a 30-day cruise to countries he had never explored. He was an avid San Francisco 49ers Fan and loved watching their games on the huge screens at the casinos. He was happiest when driving around with the top down of his beautiful red BMW convertible that he called "his baby".
