“ Having grown up with "Butchie" Bettiga, I have many fun and wonderful memories. One of my favorites was when we were 5 and he got into his dad's homemade wine. He pedaled his tricycle to our house zig-zagging down the road. My mom had him come in and sit on the little rod iron chair and he promptly fell off into the floor. She had to get his mom to come and get him. Many hours were spent upstairs in their house reading comics. I truly wish I could be there but we have 2 more months in Florida. My sympathies to all and thank you to Butchie" for all the fun times. God bless you all. Annette DeClark Andersen
