“ I am sure glad I got to see Joe this summer! We had a great lunch at the Mill Creek Inn. Saw the nice addition to the church that Joe helped build and finally he drove us to the war monument. I will cherish all of the other Unger/Gibson gatherings that Joe has been a part of for over 25 years.

“ We're going to really miss "Grandpa Joe". You were such a great part of our family for the past 27 years and you gave Grandma Kling some of the best times of her life! Lindsey and Lance loved you as did we and we are so happy for the memories we shared. We have lots of your woodworking presents that you gave us like the stamp holder, napkin holder, revolving spice rack and the game "shut the box", just to mention a few. We will always think of you when we see these items.....
