“ I first met Margaret in 1988 while living in Norway for 2 years. We have been writing letters for the past many years. I live in Cheboygan MI. I am so very sad...we spent time working on hospital auxiliary projects. I will miss her fun-interesting letters. Please express my prayers to her sons. Marian North

“ To Margaret's family - My sincere sympathy at this time to all of you. I thought Margaret was a great lady, and I was always so happy to see her and my Mom, Florence Socha, do so many things together - - whether it was going out for fish on a Friday night or an outing on a Sunday going shopping and to eat somewhere. I loved giving her some of my homemade pecans at Christmas, and I always received such a lovely thank you note from her. We are all blessed to have our Mothers live into their 90's! Know that I am thinking of you. Carol Socha
