

Marsha Jo Bray

April 6, 1946 - October 15, 2014

GREEN BAY, WI- Marsha Jo Bray age 68 of Green Bay, WI. passed away unexpectedly on October 15, 2014 at her home.

She was born on April 6th, 1946 in Norway, the daughter of the Phyllis (Chellew) Bray and the late Edward Bray.

Marsha grew up in Vulcan, and graduated from Vulcan High School. She went on to graduate from Bay College with a Licensed Practical Nurse degree.

Marsha lived the rest of her adult life in Green Bay. She worked at a variety of medical venues including; St. Vincent Hospital, Doctors offices, and Nursing homes.

She enjoyed reading of all kinds, especially newspapers. She was very well informed of current happenings. She had strong opinions on politics, local development, family and really anything else. She was passionate about social justice causes and took an active part in many.

She was a happy Bay Park Mall shopper. She delighted in giving her thoughtful gifts to her family members especially her nieces and nephews.

Family was very important to Marsha. She loved helping her mom and always had a bag or two of healthy goodies packed for her to take home. She delighted in her nieces and nephews. She loved taking them on outings and showering them with gifts.

A big “Bear Hug” from Auntie Marsha was always the greeting. More recent, the attention was on her two great nieces and nephew. She loved baking cookies for them and would bring them to their classrooms along with milk for a treat.

Marsha is survived by her loving mother Phyllis, her brother Jeff Bray, sister Pat (Galen) Steffel, sister Sandy (Terry) Calvi, and sister Sally (Jerry) Hampton.

She was preceded in death by her beloved dad Edward and several aunts and uncles.

Marsha was loved and will be missed very much.

Family will greet friends on Saturday, October 25 from 11-1 p.m. at St. Barbara's Church in Vulcan.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated on Saturday at 1 p.m. at St. Barbara's Church with Fr. Timothy Ekaitis officiating.

Interment will be held at the Norway Township Cemetery.
