“ Mary Kay was the best mother in law anyone could ask for. She was there with me when I was having her grandson. I still remember calling her at 4:30am asking if she had to work and she said yes. I told her to stop and pick me up because I was having her grandson. She told me I will pick you up but I have to take a shower first. I told her I didn't think he was going to wait that long. She got ready, picked me up, brought me to the hospital, after running every red light and speeding the whole way there. The girls at the hospital looked at her and said wow you are early today. She told them better take a picture of the clock because I won't be this early again. I will never forget her in my room rubbing my hair. She got to see and hold her grandson, Joey, before I did. God after 6 years I have so many memories I could share. RIP Mary Kay we will never forget you n Joey will have so many great stories to share when he gets older.... love and miss you
