“ As I look back at memories with Naz, I see one big smile! He had a smile that was very contagious and a heart of gold! The raps he would sing to us were hilarious, make you laugh so hard your stomach would hurt! He was a very easy person to like and will be even easier to miss! How your hearts must ache. My thoughts and prayers to Joe JR. and Sa and the entire family during this difficult time. Rest in piece Naz.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family and friends....He will be missed and never forgotten...and God promises us we will see our loved ones again who have passed away...look to that hope as he is only sleeping in peace right now until the resurrection. Act 24:15 John 5: 28, 29 . 28 Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. my condolences to you all....

“ Our heartfelt sympathies go to the family and friends of Naz. He will also be missed by us deeply. We will miss his humor and his outlook on life as we chatted when he passed by. It seemed he always had a moment to chat with us and he brought a smile to share everytime we saw him. We were very sorry to hear about his passing. Kindest regards and deepest sympathies.
