“ Dianna and family: I am so incredibly saddened to hear of the passing of Nichole. Having grown up with her and spending many nights with one another brings back so many fantastic memories. From the late night singing in the basement of her house on Lincoln Ave. in Quinnesec of The Lion Sleeps Tonight to Ice Skating at the Quinny Ice Rink... she was a wonderful friend all of those years ago and while her and I lost touch over the years it still saddens me to know that she was stolen at such a young age. My husband, children and I will surely keep you all in our thoughts and prayers.
