“ I'm an occasional visitor to my dad's hometown of Norway. At the Norway Bank, Pat was always glad to see me. Friendly, kind, intersted, caring. Our banking business was enhanced by her wonderful personality and professionalism. My condolences to her business colleagues, family and friends. A wonderful lady.

“ Pat was such a sweet lady. She was wonderful to our daughters while they sang in the youth choir. She was always sure to save a seat for our family in the choir loft. She will be missed dearly..

“ I have so many good memories of Pat. She welcomed me wholeheartedly when I married Stew and moved to Norway. We became dear friends. We laughed and cried and helped each other through our days. We walked together almost every day, and shared our love of reading. I will miss her always.

“ This is such sad news. Pat was such a mentor to me in the church choir when I was growing up and learning how to cantor. She will hold a special place in my heart. Sending prayers to you all during this time.

A mentor? Really? I guess fake blood runs through veins. I'm not sure why my children or our names were even said in her obituary because she did them and myself wrong when I asked to stay in my Aunt Deloris's house in Niagara Pat told me that myself (her first granddaughter) and my 3 year old twins could not stay in my aunts house because Dave and I did not get along.. but we had no place to go.. I'm very happy because she sang in the choir every Sunday at church you all think she's amazing.. She also wanted to have my mother at 15 years old to have an abortion with me. She was the cheer captain, basketball star and David decided after he knocked her up with me that he couldn't be father.. I'm now 37 years old and haven't talked to Pat at least 11 years ago yay before she passed. So I'm very happy with all of you that she touched your lives, it's just unfortunate that she could not accommodate her grand kid and her great grandchildren..
