“Pete & family stopped in KC several times. He sat in with my blues band at one of the local clubs and played well.
On another trip we had a BBQ at a friends house and an extended jam session.
I'm glad we became friends with Pete and Nettie.

We lost one of the good ones.

I played with Pete in a band with Dave Carlson for about two years and played the blues with him in another band! I am very saddened to hear this just recently. I still have recordings at practice that I play offend!

“Pete and I were hired on the same day and our offices were next to each other. As such, I got to know Pete very well. He had a love of music, good cigars, and airplanes. While we had different interests, I discovered that we shared similar perspectives which made for interesting conversations. What I remember and admired the most about him, though, was his amazingly profound wry wit. I often felt that no one else could have stated things better, and certainly not in the humorous way he had a knack for. You will be missed.

“I have worked with Pete these past 7 years. What I admire most about him was his straightforward nature-he always told it like it was, with honesty and clarity. In a world that often dances around the truth, he had a rare gift for cutting through the noise and getting to the heart of things. But what I'll miss just as much-if not more-is his wise and thought-provoking humor. He had a way of making you laugh while still leaving you with something to think about. His presence brought both levity and depth to our days, and the workplace won't be the same without him. Rest in peace, my friend. You'll be missed more than words can say.

“ Pete was not only a gifted guitar player, he was creative beyond belief...with a true passion for music. I was fortunate enough to play in a band with Pete 30 plus years ago and experienced his stunning creativeness up close, repeatedly.
Besides his musical talent, Pete absolutely loved his family. Nettie, Maria and Peter meant the world to him.
The world is worse off without Pete.....and I will miss him big time.
