“ To all the Muraro Family, Your Dad and mom were neighbors to my parents on 22nd Street. I will always remember your father laying on the couch with his feet up, after a long day at work. Mary and I would be sneaking up the steps to her room. Then, suddenly his voice would loudly echo out " Hello, Cindy" I would sheepishly say Hi Mr. Muraro! In the years that followed he would mellow a lot. And when I would see him again in later years. I would hear him say, once again, Hi Cindy and I would give that big sweet man a big hug, and say Hi Mr. Muraro... Mr. Muraro, you will be missed but, not ever forgotten! Rest in Peace and hope to see you again someday!

“ Hi
So sorry to hear about Roy. Another Loretto person gone. I didn't know Roy like I knew Betty, and Rosalie, and his Mom and Dad. They are great family, and a very close one. Now Roy is playing Moda with the rest of the Loretto gang, eating his Mom's polenta . My thoughts are with you. See you again Roy. Lucy Geline Krajna

“ Dear Family,
I would like to offer my sincere sympathy to your family for the loss of Roy. I am so happy that he was able to be at home where he wanted to be. A prayer for you:
God's Promise
God never promised a life without pain,
Laughter without tears or sun without rain,
But He didnot promise strength for the day,
Comfort for the tears and the light for the way, And for all who believe in His Heaven above He rewards their faith in His everlasting love.
Love Mia (& Wascal)

“ To the Muraro family,
I wish to offer my sincere condolences to your family. Roy was a very special person to me and the memories I have of him will last forever. I know my son Tyler also has a special place in his heart for his Granpa. All the things he has done for me will never be forgotten. He is now with his Mom and Dad drinking that homemade wine. I loved him very much.
