“ Sally was a wonderful woman and our beloved neighbor who lived across the street when she and our family both lived in Troy, MI (circa early 1990-2000). We are so saddened to learn she is no longer with us, but know she's holding block parties in Heaven as she was so gracious to do for her neighbors on Barclay Drive. Until we meet again, Sally. Our heartfelt sympathy to her family, The Fedorak Family (Jurij, Vera, Lesia & Bohdan). ❤️🙏👼

“ Please accept our deepest and heart-felt condolences on Sally’s passing. As Sally’s neighbors on Barclay Drive, our family will remember her warmth, her wit, and her appreciation of fine dining, beautiful flowers and the company of her beloved cats. All of us felt a genuine sense of loss at the news of her death.

Sally had a keen sense of humor and a generous spirit, two characteristics that served her well living next to my mother, a feisty, straight talker who was never short of “good ideas” that required the help of others to execute. When my mother proposed that the Barclay neighborhood have a midsummer picnic, and that Sally’s backyard become its primary site, Sally embraced the arrangement. That picnic was repeated annually for many years, and likely contributed to neighborhood relationships that were much closer than they would have been without Sally’s generosity, kindness and willingness to entertain.

For almost all of the years that Sally was our neighbor, her holiday gift to our family was a beautiful Christmas tree, brought to Troy from the UP by her brother Robert. So many of our Christmas memories and holiday photos will forever give us a reason to think of her fondly, and to remember her twinkling eyes, her wry smile, and how much she enriched our lives.

Sally will be missed by all who knew her.

“ I have flowers growing in my garden that Sally shared with me. She has been a very good friend to me through the years, even when she moved back to the UP!!! I know she liked being near her family. Sally was there for me when she was a neighbor..I called and said...my dad coded blue, please watch the kids.Done!!! On 9/11...we had gone for breakfast and Gwynny went to her home while I waited for a repair person. We talked...and she took care of Gwyneth. Sally was still there even when she moved back to the UP. She listened and always gave me her Sally advice. I think I will just pretend that she is not picking up her phone when I call because she is forever in my heart.

“ Sally was a wonderful friend and neighbor. She loved her family dearly and talked about them often. She adored her cats and enjoyed planting new flowers and working in her garden. During the warmer seasons, her garden was an oasis of colors. My kids loved her and invited her to their weddings and baby showers. When she moved back home and away from Troy, our street was never the same. We missed her so much but she was only a phone call away. Now all I can do is treasure the memories I have of the times we spent together on Barclay Drive and up in the beautiful UP.

My whole family sends our sincerest condolences to Sally's family.

“ I remember visiting Aunt Sally in Troy, MI with my Mom, siblings and Kristen. She was the Aunt we saw on holidays and during the summer. When she moved up here I was an adult & we became close. I Loved visiting her and talking for hours. She gave the best straight forward advice. I always told her I thought of her as my 2nd Mom. I am so thankful I got to spend the last couple of days with her, learning about family history and laughing at her jokes. I will forever be grateful for the love and laughter she gave to my husband and I. I am grateful for her trying to teach me to have thick skin and to come up with witty comebacks. Sending hugs and love to anyone who knew her. She was the best

“ Sally and I have been friends for almost 50 years. She and I were roommates at Markley Hall at the University of Michigan and then in an apartment on Packard Street. There are so many good memories that we shared that it is hard to find just one to write about. However there is one occasion that stands out. After Sally moved to Detroit and then to Troy we both wanted to get away for a short vacation. Since I had some time off at Easter from my job in education we decided to get away for a long weekend, Sally made all of the arrangements (and of course paid for the airfare and hotel room) to go to Boston. We landed at Logan Airport on Saturday, hailed a cab and as we are on the way to the hotel, the cabbie asks, "So are you here for the race"?. Confused, we both replied "What race"? The Boston Marathon!!! he replied You guessed it, we had arrived the weekend of the Boston Marathon. Well the city was hopping with runners and fit looking folks from all over the world. That didn't stop us from having a wonderful time, and a memory I will hold forever dear. Just as I will now hold my dear friend Sally forever in my heart. She was a loving, generous, funny, and faithful friend and someone who will be missed but never forgotten.

“ My sincere condolences to her remaining sibling Sue. I first met Aunt Sally through my husband Scott who is the son of her brother Robert Hall Int-Hout at my future sister-in-law Kelly's wedding in 1986. All I can say is what a caricature, she had me captivated from the get go. She was funny, incitefull and VERY long winded, boy could she talk! I will miss our talks and her knowledge of gardening the most. I have plants that she brought with her from Troy and which she helped me plant. I am always reminded of her when I look out my front window during summer and see them bloom. I will forever cherish that memory of her helping me plant them that weekend so long ago. She will truly be missed.
