“ yes I remember them days like it was yesterday Auntie Sally a person could never call during the day as mom and you played cards as well!!! Mom was an awesome cook, to bad I didn't get her cooking skills! I appreciate till this day everything she has ever done for me and my daughter I feel I am the person I am today because of her guidance. Mom I love you and we will one day hug again.

Love your daughter always and forever

“ As a child growing up with a big sister and 10 years difference in age, I remember I would get her trouble by tattling. Oh boy would she get mad. As we grew older she was my best friend and confidant. She took care of me and helped me through a kinda ruff time in my teenage years. I'm still very grateful for her and John for helping me see what turned out to be the best decision of my life. When our hubbies where busy at work we would play triple Yahtzee over the phone everyday for years. Never knew if either of us was cheating it was a lot of fun. As time went on we grew apart with families of our owns not so far that we lost touch. I love her and will miss her a lot. So happy she was surrounded by her family and the visits I had with her myself. She's at peace now probably laughing at me for crying while I type this we both were quite emotional.

Love all of you

Auntie Sally
