

Sharon Eickstedt

April 29, 1944 - October 16, 2025

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO - Sharon Jean (Brown) Eickstedt age 81 of Colorado Springs, passed away peacefully, Thursday, October 16, 2025 at Pikes Peak Hospice and Palliative Care in Colorado Springs, CO., after a short illness.

Born on April 29, 1944, at the Old Penn Hospital in Norway, Michigan, Sharon was the beloved daughter of Allan Brown and the former Jeanne Olsen of Vulcan. A 1962 graduate of Vulcan High School, she was both an honor student and the Prom Queen—early reflections of her intelligence, grace, and warmth.

Following graduation, Sharon attended Michigan State University with aspirations of becoming a doctor. At that time, scholarships and grants for women in medicine were limited, and she left her studies early to begin a new chapter in life. She married the love of her life, Dudley Eickstedt, on November 14, 1964, beginning a marriage that spanned more than six decades and countless shared adventures.

In 1981, Sharon proudly graduated from the Milwaukee County General Hospital School of Nursing, fulfilling a lifelong desire to care for others. She worked at Briggs & Stratton in Milwaukee for several years before devoting more than 20 years of service as a Registered Nurse at Crystal Falls Community Hospital and Iron River Hospital. Her compassion, dedication, and calm strength touched the lives of patients and colleagues alike.

Outside of her work, Sharon was an avid reader who especially loved mysteries—Agatha Christie being her favorite author. She had a deep appreciation for history and spent her retirement years researching and assembling her family tree. Her favorite films included Indiana Jones and the original Star Wars trilogy, which she enjoyed watching with her family.

After many happy years in their dream retirement home in Wisconsin, Sharon and Dudley relocated to Colorado Springs to be closer to family and receive the support and companionship of those they loved most.

Sharon is survived by her devoted husband Dudley Eickstedt of Colorado Springs; her three children Donald (Svetlana) Eickstedt of Nashua, New Hampshire; Daniel Eickstedt of Colorado Springs; and Lynne (Sascha) Lantin of Vulcan, Michigan. She was a proud grandmother to Samuel Eickstedt of New York, New York; Dylan, Sofia, and Danielle Eickstedt of Colorado Springs; and Gage Steely of Knoxville, Tennessee. sister Lynne Smith of Norway, Michigan; brother Robert (Donna) Brown of San Bernardino, California; she is also lovingly remembered by her friend Kelly Fealy of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Sharon was preceded in death by her parents, Allan and Jeanne Brown, and her brother, Michael Brown.

Visitation will be held on Friday, October 31, 2025 from 4-7 p.m. at Ortman Funeral Home in Norway.

The Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday, November 1 at 11 a.m. at St. Barbara's Church, with Fr. Abraham Mupparathara officiating.

Interment will follow at the Norway Township Cemetery.

Sharon will be remembered for her intelligence, kindness, and enduring love for her family—a woman whose quiet strength and generous heart will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

*So sad to read about the passing of Sharon I always looked forward to having you both in the salon, it was always a fun good time. Lots of stories shared between the three of us, that included laughs and sometimes tears, always talk about your children. Sharon planning the meals and stories about building your home. May have retired in 2016 but I thought of you both so many times wo during where you both were amd what you were up to.ay God keep you close and help you to navigate your new normal My prayers amd thoughts are with you Dudley and remember we will all be together someday.
Both you and Sharon will never be forgotten
