“ Vera was a great friend to me I learned lot's while taking care of her for four years at Oakcrest Assisted Living. She was like a grand mother to me telling me what to do and not to do she was great. I am sorry to hear she passed away. I still have the angel she gave me so I will always keep that in my vehicle. She will be sadly missed.

“ So sorry to hear about your Mom. She was my best friend when I lived in Norway for about 2 years. She and Floyd used to bring porketta roasts to us when they came to the Packer games for us. Vera was a special person. She took me under her wing when we moved to Norway. I didn't know a soul but I knew how to play bridge. That was all she needed to know. I visited her several times in the elder care facility and took her out to lunch. The last time I saw her, I saw a dramatic change. I loved her like family. You are so lucky to have had her as a mom.
