“ Many fond memories of visiting Aunt Vickie were with her eldest sister, my Granny Anna where both sisters would discuss and compare their beautiful gardens and new pickle recipes. She was an elegant great aunt!

“ I remember being at Auntie Vickie's house a few years ago. She had just finished cleaning her kitchen carpet-scrubbing it on her hands and knees. She wanted to show me a recipe in one of her books. She grabbed a chair so she could find it in a high cupboard. She stood up on that chair it like it was nothing--unbelievable. That was Auntie Vicki. I love you Auntie Vicki and I will miss you. I will always remember your stories and keep your memories close.

“ She was an amazing woman! She had one of the most immaculate yards in Norway. I always enjoyed going to her house. She had the best pickles ever :).

Aunty Sharon, Cheryl, Suzanne, Kyanna, Matthew, Mila and Mackenzie big hugs and I love you guys. Rest easy knowing she is now with Pa now.
