

Walter D. Haupt

January 15, 1941 - June 5, 2021

PEMBINE, WI- Walter "Wally" Haupt age 80 of Pembine, passed away Saturday, June 5, 2021 from ongoing heart issues, at Dickinson Co. Memorial Hospital in Iron Mountain, MI.

He was born January 15th, 1941 in Milwaukee, the son of the late Bernard and Helen (Dzick) Haupt.

The youngest of 6 children, Wally grew up in Pembine, WI and continued to live there until his death.

Walter worked as a heavy equipment operator for 35 years and enjoyed fishing, hunting, playing guitar, singing and his family. The last 8 years of his retired life was spent running karaoke shows at local venues with his girlfriend Sandy Jonet.

Wally is survived by Sandy as well as his three sons; David, Ken and Robert Haupt and 8 grandchildren and a huge extended family. He will be missed by many.

In accordance with Walter's wishes private family services will be held.

Cemetery Details

Pembine Cemetery

Pembine, WI 54156

Tribute Wall

RH

“ To the family, please accept my sincere sympathy on your loss. "I have lost a dear friend. Memories of Wally will be in my thoughts always. I share your grief."

Rhonda - June 12, 2021 at 04:34 PM

“ To many good memories to share with uncle Wally! From his amazing fish Fry's with my grandpa Bernie to visiting him and my aunt Shirley on random days, it was always a blast. I will miss you uncle Wally. Wish we could have gotten to catch up before you passed. Love you always! 💕💕

Stephanie Davis - June 09, 2021 at 01:51 PM

DI

“ ,Many good memories of an old classmate. He will never be forgotten.

Dianne - June 07, 2021 at 02:15 PM