“ Yvonne was dear woman. She was a mom away from mom when I was hanging out at the Peterson's as a kid, as well as at church. She was my Sunday School and catechism teacher in my youth as well. She was also there for our family when my own mom passed. I truly appreciate her and I pray that her memory will always be a blessing. It is for me. My heart reaches out to her family. Godspeed, Yvonne - rest now in the presence of our Savior.

“ U Jack, Greg, Darren, Jackie, Ben & Jesse,

Bonnie and I would like to express our deep condolences. The biggest memory I have is when we visited you in Quinnesec when I was very young and she made a chocolate pudding cake. That was the first time I've ever had one! Boy, that was delicious! She will be greatly missed!
